Age Your Way™

Online Training Opportunity:

Elder Abuse Awareness and Prevention

Did you know that according to the Department of Justice, a minimum of 1 in 9 or 11% of Americans over the age of 60, has experienced some form of elder abuse in the past year? Did you know that in 66% of the elder abuse and neglect incidents with a known perpetrator, the perpetrator is an adult child or spouse?

This is a 1.5 hour interactive and comprehensive training for community members, healthcare professionals and others who interact and work with older adults. The prime goal is to raise awareness about types of abuse, risk factors, and indicators of abuse, as well as the appropriate reporting processes.

Learning Outcomes:

- ⇒ Define elder abuse, neglect and exploitation
- ⇒ Understand the prevalence and community impact
- ⇒ Identify indicators and risk factors as they pertain to the victims and the perpetrators
- ⇒ Understand mandatory reporting requirements
