2020 SENIOR HALL OF FAME OPENS FOR NOMINATIONS

The Aging and Disability Resource Center of Broward County is seeking nominations for the 2020 Broward Senior Hall of Fame. Candidates must be 60 years of age and older, who have performed in a highly commendable manner, in the Broward County Volunteer Sector for 5 years or more.

Nominations, in 200 words or less, should include: the senior's name; age; address; telephone number; email address; and a description of why the individual is being nominated. Include your name and contact information with the Nomination.

A special committee will meet, in March, to study the 2020 nominations, and choose the new members.

Electees are honored in May, which is Older American's Month, at a special breakfast. Their names also are placed on a plaque that is displayed in the Broward County Government Building.

Nominations should be received by the ADRC on or before the end of business on Friday, March 27, 2020. Mail the data to: Broward Senior Hall of Fame, 5300 Hiatus Road, Sunrise, FL 33351; Email to: nominations@adrcbroward.org; or send your data online at: <http://adrcbroward.org/seniorhalloffame.php>.

For further information, please call the Aging and Disability Resource Center at 954-745-9567.
