

“Health Information 101 Skillsbuilder”

Attend one or more computer classes at Northwest Regional Library, Coral Springs, FL offered for all to celebrate “Older Adults Month 2017”

Location, Dates and Times—

Northwest Regional Library	3151 N. University Drive	Coral Springs, FL 33065
Monday, May 1, 2017	Thursday, May 4, 2017	Friday, May 5, 2017
1pm—3pm	10am—Noon	10am—Noon
Health information Overview	U.S. Government Online Resources	Broward County/ Florida eLibrary Toolkit

Learn interactively and at your own pace with support from Instructor
Dr. Mary Howrey, EdD, as you —

- ◆ Build and refine your health research strategies on the web
- ◆ Evaluate and select high quality online health information materials
- ◆ Find reliable health and wellness information from U.S. government websites offered by the National Institutes of Health (NIH), National Library of Medicine (NLM), and Centers for Disease and Control (CDC)
- ◆ Explore the free online resources offered through Broward County Library

To Register— Library Phone: (954) 357-8068 E-mail: mhowrey@tlnetwork.org

Note: You can register for one or more classes in the series. Reserve your seat(s) early.

This training series is a partnership between the Broward County Library System and the TLM Network Special Library & Information Service, Tamarac, FL.