THE AREAWIDE COUNCIL ON AGING OF BROWARD COUNTY NAMES CHARLOTTE MATHER-TAYLOR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Areawide Council on Aging of Broward County announced that its Board of Directors has appointed Charlotte Mather-Taylor as Executive Director at the Aging and Disability Resource Center of Broward County. Mather-Taylor previously held the position of Chief Executive Officer at the Ann Storck Center, located in Broward.

Mather-Taylor has strong operational, advocacy, and organizational skills. Her career has spanned the nonprofit, government sectors, healthcare providers, and local community involvement for over 30 years.

Mather-Taylor succeeds Edith Lederberg, who passed away in January. She will officially join the organization on April 15, 2019.

The Broward Aging and Disability Resource Center oversees the development of a comprehensive and coordinated system of care that is responsive to the dignity, independence and needs of persons 60 years and older, and individuals, 18 - 59 years old disabled adults.
